THE PRICKLER.
SPEAKING, speaking, little ear.
You must play a busy part.
In this busy, dirty world.
If you don't prick it all down.
Work away with all your art.
Don't let your ink run dry.
While the pointers take the dust.

One of the best and most important features of the Safety Investment Co. is the fact that it furnishes to persons of small means, laborers, persons on salaries, etc., a means of investing profitably a portion of their income, however small. The results are obtained by the co-operation of large numbers, and the small investor has the same proportionate profit as the large one. Besides encouraging the saving of earnings, it gives a profit on them.

Miss Anna Bienen very pleasantly entertained last evening at her home in the Fifth Ward. Quite a number of friends responded to the invitations and a happy evening was spent.

MR. PHILIP SWANGER.

Death Near Washington of a Highly Respected Farmer.

The death of Mr. Philip Swanger occurred yesterday at his home near Washington.

Some fifteen years ago Mr. Swanger came to Mason from Adams county, O., and in this community he was very highly regarded.

Deceased was about 70 years of age and is survived by his wife, five sons and one daughter.

The remains will be taken tomorrow to Adams county for interment.

ACCEPT THE CHALLENGE.

Rev. F. W. Harrop Speaks in Behalf of the Y. M. C. A. Team.

THE LEADER yesterday published a challenge from the Eckfords, an old-time ball club of Maysville, for the Y. M. C. A., and in behalf of the latter team, Rev. F. W. Harrop, Secretary, has the following to say:

JULY 10th, 1901.
Dear Public Leader, Maysville, Ky.—Editor Sir: My all means I am glad the matter of a ball game between the "Eckfords" and Y. M. C. A. If a representative of that team will call on me or appoint a place of meeting I shall be happy to arrange this matter, and I am sure that our local Y. M. C. A. will be a decided gainer by such a game. Now, Mr. Editor, do your best to promote this matter, and let everybody take hold and "root" either for the Eckfords or the Y. M. C. A. Very sincerely,
F. W. Harrop,
Secretary Y. M. C. A.

MR. CHARLES W. ZWIGART.

Was Married Yesterday Afternoon to a Newport Lady.

A quiet home wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at 515 York street, Newport, in which a well known Maysville took a very prominent part.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Harris of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, assisted by the lives of Mr. Charles W. Zwigart of this city and Miss Emma Veith of Newport.

The marriage will no doubt be quite a surprise to a large number of the groom's many friends here, as no public announcement of the event had been made.

Mr. Zwigart is a member of one of Maysville's oldest and most respected families, while his bride, who is a daughter of Mrs. F. Veith, is a very charming woman.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Zwigart left for the West, their trip probably to embrace a visit to the Pacific Coast cities.

No definite plans have been made as to their future residence upon their return here.

The Young Men's Suits we sell follow closely the styles that are made for their elders. They have that indescribable air of "youngmanishness" that is absolutely necessary in order that the suit may be becoming. This accounts for the boys wearing our suits.

Have you seen our Shirts? They are all right. The Manhattan Shirt people tell us that they are astounded at the quantities of their goods we order and sell. You see they do not know the people in this locality as well as we do. Our folks want the best in everything; it is the cheapest. Just received a fresh invoice of them; call in and see them.

We have a magnificent variety of Midsummer Neckwear (just in) that will interest you. Our Flannel Coats and Vests are appreciated. We know this from the number of them sold in the past few days. Our Shoe Department offers nothing "sensational" in the way of give-away bargains. We simply buy and sell the best Shoes made in the world. Hanan & Son and W. L. Douglas are our leaders. We have all the latest styles, have them for the nobly dresser, also for those that solely look for comfort, we sell them at legitimate prices and warrant every pair we sell. Our Stetson Hats, both in soft and derby, and our Brigham-Hopkins Straw Hats are the proper headwear. Look at them.

AS THE... PROVERBIAL STRAW!

Shows which way the wind blows, the crowd shows where the best Merchandise can be found. No need to tell you Hunt's is the busiest house in town. What all say must be true—that we're showing the largest line of wash fabrics and the happy hum of busy transactions and pleased customers prove it. This stock you must see frequently if you would keep in touch with the very newest, as interesting additions are made almost daily.

More styles than ever of the stylish linen color lawns at lower prices too. The idea of buying one of the season's latest fads at ½ less regular price has struck a popular chord. This week will make a new record in cotton dress goods selling as well as a record in value giving. A style here and there getting first and last showing in a day. These the medium price goods—best for many uses and users. All 15c.
